

DELEGATES FOR ANNUAL COUNCIL.

The Parochial Branches of the Woman's Auxiliary.

HEAR MISS SALLIE STUART.

She Urges Upon the Members the Importance of the Work—A Party to Attend the Launching of the Kentucky.

At noon yesterday Miss Sallie Stuart, of Alexandria, met the officers of the various parochial branches of the Woman's Auxiliary in this city, for the purpose of conferring with them on subjects of special interest and importance to them. The meeting was held in the Parish building of St. Andrew's church, and was attended by many of the most prominent local workers in the auxiliary, including Mrs. Grace Shields, head of the Ladies' Church; Mrs. Joshua Peterson, Mrs. C. P. Smith, Miss Margaret Ayres, Mrs. George Barksdale, Mrs. Joseph Bryan, Mrs. George Warren, Mrs. Miss Warren, Mrs. Lee, of Gloucester, Miss Hancock, Miss Annie Blankenship, Mrs. J. A. Gray, Mrs. John W. Gordon and Miss Rebecca Newwood.

Mrs. George W. Peterson, wife of the Bishop of West Virginia, was also present. Owing to the sudden death of a parishioner, Rev. Mr. Bennett was unable to be present at the opening of the meeting, but came in later. The exercises were opened with prayer by Miss Stuart (who is the Diocesan Secretary of the Auxiliary) wherein the Divine Blessing was invoked that the real of those present might be kindled, and that efforts might be influenced to assist in effecting the coming of Christ's Kingdom.

She then stated that the meeting was called for the discussion of important matters, upon which it was an absolute necessity to have the opinion of those present, and proceeded to state what these matters were.

The first consisted in calling to the general attention the importance of sending to the annual council delegates who were able to take responsibility that they could be confidently relied upon to carry out the business of the auxiliary at that time their side business. The delegates are sent to the council by the auxiliary, for the express purpose of contributing to its meeting at the council their own personal funds, and of securing as much information regarding the general auxiliary life of the diocese as possible, so as to bring it back home as a stimulus to greater effort for those who could not attend. If the annual meeting is neglected in order to enjoy the social and interesting details of the council, an opportunity is lost and a solemn responsibility disregarded, Miss Stuart seemed to be endorsed by all present.

Miss Newwood then presented at the suggestion of Mrs. Lee, of Gloucester, an idea which was promptly and unanimously approved. She suggested that along the lines of the model classes conducted in connection with the Sunday School Institute, a "Model Class" for auxiliary workers be held in connection with the annual meeting in May, and it was suggested that the ladies present be organized to formulate plans for the conduct of the class. It was, however, suggested by Mrs. Joseph Bryan, that a committee of such number as those present might determine be appointed to carry out the plan, and the names of Mrs. Grace Shields, Mrs. George Warren, Mrs. Lee, of Gloucester, Miss Newwood, Miss Warren, Mrs. C. P. Smith, Mrs. Joseph Bryan and Mrs. George Barksdale were mentioned, although they were not voted upon.

Miss Stuart urged upon those present the importance of electing delegates and alternates to the Council at the first meeting in April, so as to facilitate arrangements for their entertainment in Winchester. It was decided, after a telling address by Mrs. Bryan, that the names of the delegates will be called in alphabetical order, and the reports of the branches not represented by delegates will be read either by the secretary or some other person appointed for the purpose. Mrs. Bryan complimented the ladies who attended the meeting at the Association, and spoke warmly of the interesting programme attributable to their observance of method. No paper exceeded five minutes, and each reader was ready when her name was called.

Mrs. Bryan said, so that no time was lost. It was resolved that duplicates of these reports of the branches of the auxiliary be prepared and sent to Mrs. Bryan, who is custodian of the records of the Auxiliary. The annual meeting of the auxiliary will be held in Washington, D. C., where the annual meeting of the diocese will be held in October, which will be held in a large attendance of delegates from Virginia on that occasion. The meeting was a most helpful one, and in bidding a tearful good-bye to those who were present, Miss Stuart referred to it as one which had given her new strength for what she felt to be her "God-given work."

The T. O. C. Club, which takes the trip to Lakeside each Wednesday at noon and makes an afternoon of it on the golf links and at the club house, will be among the Richmond party who will go to New York to witness the launching of the Kentucky. The members of the club are Miss Eleanor Basher, Miss Julia Harnett, Miss Jennie Pace, Miss Elsie Cameron and Miss Flossie Talbot. They were to be seen on the links yesterday, as were Mrs. Annie Donnan, Mrs. Thomas Belling, Misses Hattie and Fannie Rose, Mrs. William L. Royal, Mrs. John Malbury, Mrs. Charles Evelyn Smith, Mrs. Ben Palmer and others.

Mrs. Clifford Caperton was thought somewhat better yesterday.

A meeting of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities was held at noon yesterday. Mrs. J. S. Westford presiding. Only routine business of an unimportant nature was transacted. A general meeting will be held on Tuesday night, the 18th.

One of the social interests of to-day is the musical reception to be held at the Rosemary Library this afternoon from 5 until 8 o'clock. Between the hours the library will be closed for business. The entertainment is given for the benefit of the book fund and promises to attract many of the city's most prominent and charming people. A delightful programme has been prepared.

The Royal is the highest grade baking powder known. Actual tests show it goes one-third further than any other brand.

The Needlework Guild, as the result of many demands upon it, makes an earnest appeal to all its members to respond promptly and send in the two garments which, contributed annually, are all that is required for membership. There are now 50 members, which should represent 70 garments. As a matter of fact, only 22 garments have been received, of which 11 were contributed by one person, 11 by another and 9 by another. There is no charity in the city which does exactly the kind of good done by the guild or reaches the same class of poor as its beneficiaries, and certainly none which is less exacting. Its work is done quietly, and for that reason it is far less well known than it should be. It has in its origin the truest mercy and goodwill and has gone forward without parade of results, but cannot proceed unless response from members is prompt. A particularly pitiable case has just been brought to the attention of the president, who feels moved by pity to a degree which makes her exact responses with special eagerness. Garments should be left at 5 south Third street.

CHEWNING AND ROSE FAIL.

The General Stringency of the Times Drives Them to the Wall.

A deed of trust was filed in the clerk's office of the Chancery Court late yesterday afternoon by A. J. Chewning and Kate G. Chewning, his wife, and Edward S. Rose and Louise C. Rose, his wife, and by A. J. Chewning and Edward S. Rose, trustees of the firm of Chewning & Rose, transferring their property to Messrs. R. C. Cutchins and J. Boston Hill, as trustees.

The deed sets forth that Messrs. Chewning & Rose, who have for several years been engaged in business as real estate agents and auctioneers, have by reason of the stringency of the times become financially embarrassed and are unable to meet their obligations as they mature, but desire to dedicate their assets to the payment of their debts in such manner as seems to them right.

The property transferred by the deed embraces the following real estate in this city: House and lot No. 10, on Catherine street, between Baker and Third streets, and lot No. 11, on Baker street,
